Distinguished Madame Director,

I would like to thank you and the Office for Democratic Institutions and Human Rights (ODIHR) for continuous support provided to the Parliament of Montenegro in the previous period. Cooperation between Montenegro and ODIHR represents a model of mutual understanding and I am convinced that our continuing efforts to improve electoral legislation will additionally reinforce our relations. By underlining the important role of the ODIHR in the process of monitoring of the electoral process in Montenegro, I would like to renew our commitment to foster activities in line with recent ODIHR recommendations.

In this context, I would like to inform you that the Parliamentary Committee has set about further reform of electoral and other legislation. The responsibilities of this working body are reflecting the intentions of political stakeholders to additionally improve the electoral process, and contribute to democratic values and standards for transparent and inclusive elections. However, the success in its work and the final outcome, which should contribute to the strengthening of citizens' trust in the election process, also imply the involvement of all entities, starting from the state institutions to the citizens as individuals. I am pleased to inform you that one of the first goals and tasks of this Committee will be to implement the OSCE/ODIHR recommendations on the 2016 Parliamentary elections and 2018 Presidential election.

Dear Madame Gísladóttir,

Given that the ODIHR has strong administrative capacities and rich experience in the field of electoral legislation, I would like to kindly ask to provide us with expert support, needed for the successful realization of the mandate of the Committee. Moreover, I would like to emphasize our openness to directly discuss different modalities of participation within the Committee and/or other forms of cooperation.

Please remain assured of my firm dedication for success in this regard, as well as my particular appreciation for the ODHIR work under your effective guidance.

I avail myself of this opportunity to renew, Madame Director, the assurances of my utmost consideration.

Branimir Gvozdenović

Vice President of the Parliament of Montenegro
Chairman of the Committee on further reform of electoral and other legislation
